Donate to the AEA Educational Foundation Silent Auction

The AEA Educational Foundation Silent Auction will take place during the 53rd Annual AEA International Convention and Trade Show, April 7-10, 2010 in Orlando, Fla. The AEA Educational Foundation administers the largest scholarship campaign for avionics and aircraft maintenance technicians and provides technical training opportunities for AEA members. These initiatives need ongoing support. Your contribution to the silent auction will not only give your company great exposure at the show it will help ensure the future of the Foundation and its initiatives. All proceeds from the auction will benefit the AEA Educational Foundation
