This issue highlights the 54th annual AEA International Convention & Trade Show, beginning on page 26 with a wrap up of the show from reporter Christine Knauer, and a look at the more than 30 new products and services introduced during the convention.

Contents

- Point of Communication by Paula Derks
  AEA Convention Schedule Almost at Straight and Level

- AEA Now

- Up Front

- The View From Washington by Ric Peri
  The Emperor Has No Clothes

- International News and Regulatory Updates by Ric Peri

- AEA Rocks Reno by Christine Knauer
  Members Score Winning Combination at Convention

- New Products by Christine Knauer
  More than 30 New Products and Features

- A Conversation With... by Patricia Luebke
  Alex Kemer of Tri-Star Technologies

- Business Basics by Greg Laslo
  Goal Tending: Use Little Tricks to Achieve Big Things

- Staying Connected by Scott M. Spangler
  Proactive Communication Attracts & Retains Customers

- Theory & Practice by Tom Inman
  Eponyms: What’s in a Name?

- PRO-to-col by Patricia Luebke
  Recovering from Media Phobia

- GPS Pushback to LightSquared Threat
  by Blanding Sloan

- Avionics Interfaces by John D. Ruley
  Don’t Miss the Bus

- Meet the AEA Staff by Patricia Luebke
  Linda Adams, Director of Member Services

- Airborne Weather Radar by David W. Mansen
  White Paper Authored by Texas GYRO, Part IV

- What’s New
  The Source for Updates on AEA Members

- Marketplace Classifieds
  Jobs, Equipment, Calibration, Services & More

- Before & After
  NexAir Avionics, Mansfield, Mass.